

Knitting History Forum annual conference - Saturday 1 Feb 2025 (online)
Programme 11.15am to 4.45pm (UK time - GMT)

11.15am
11.20am

Online arrivals
Welcome

11.30-12.05pm

Knitting history in China: from the late 19th century to the early 20th century
Trista Yeung, PhD candidate, University of Hong Kong

12.05-12.40pm

The proof of the pattern is in the making: the technology of the crochet pattern in the 1840s and how I got on when I tried to use them
Eleanor Gilchrist, PhD candidate, Newcastle University, UK

12.40-1.15pm

KnitWell: examining the use of a knitter's vocabulary in capturing emotional states
Emily Rickard, PhD candidate, Nottingham Trent University, UK

1.15-2.30pm
1.45-2.20pm

Refreshment break
Refreshment break with group chats

2.30-3.05pm

(Re)Constructing the Ballybunion knitted cap: providing a glimpse into the experiences, skills, and time required in the knitting of 16th century knitted caps, utilising experimental archaeology
Ryan Daniel Koenig, an archaeologist specialising in historical textiles, Dublin, Ireland

3.05–3.40pm

Bohus Stickning: a network of creativity
Isa Holmgren, Master in Textile Studies, Uppsala University, Sweden

3.40–4.15pm

Krystyna Chiger: the girl in the green sweater
Elizabeth Baer, Professor, Gustavus Adolphus College, Minnesota, USA

4.15-4.30pm
4.30-4.45 pm

Thanks and closing remarks
Informal chat (optional)

5pm

Close

Tickets for the conference are available to buy here